TROPICO WATER SERVICE SHALL THE CITY OWN AND CONTROL IT

The purchase of the Tropico water service plant is up for consideration and I am asked for a statement of the matter from my point of view.

First and foremost let me say I sincerely favor the acquisition and ownership by the city of all its public services, whether of water, of gas, or of electricity. Particularly of water service. Reasons are too apparent to need presenting here, or in this day and age of the world.

The fear of being cheated in a bargain for the purchase of Mr. Brand's plant is silly. The further fear that Mr. Brand will get more for his plant than it cost him is equally so. The almost omnipotent State Railroad Commission as arbiter, with absolute power of determining the price at which Mr. Brand may sell and the city buy the plant, there is little danger of the city being cheated or of Mr. Brand being overreached. Neither party has any ambition to pose in such a character I am sure.

The procedure of the proposed transaction is very simple and easily understood. An application to the Commission for an order authorizing the sale of the property, necessary and useful in the performance of duties to the public, must be made by both the parties to the proposed transaction, and must show all the reasons of each party for entering into the proposed sale and purchase, and all the facts warranting the same, and show that it is for the benefit of the public service.

A detailed description of the property to be sold must be given together with the original cost to the applicant to sell and the present value of the same.

Being a plant purchased instead of constructed by Mr. Brand, the application to sell the same "must show with sufficient detail the name of the parties from whom and when purchased, the purchase price and other facts pertinent to such purchase."

Upon findings of fact on these showings the Commission will proceed to determine the price at which Mr. Brand will be permitted to sell and the city to buy, and make an order accordingly.

We, each, may have our individual notions or ideas of what the price should be, but such private opinions will "cut no ice" in the fixing of it. The Commission will be governed by the facts in the case. It will then be up to the electors of the city to vote the bonds of the city for the purchase, or to vote them down as they shall see fit. Until then we will have nothing tangible to talk about; discussion will amount to nothing but waste of words and fagged out theorizing. In parliamentary sense there will be "no question before the house" until the question of voting the bonds for the proposed purchase is raised; at least until Mr. Brand shall tell us what his plant has cost him.

THE GLENDALE-LOS ANGELES BOULEVARD ASSOCIATION AND ITS AIMS LAUDED BY LOS ANGELES TIMES. PROJECT WINS FAVOR EVERYWHERE

Map showing proposed bridge across river at Ivanho and distance to be gained

Under heading "Fact and Comment" the L. A. Times of Sunday has the following to say in regard to the proposed opening of Brand Boulevard through to the city and the building of a bridge across the river at Ivanhoe.

A project of great importance to Los Angeles as a whole and of particular interest to the northwest part of the city was revived last week when the Glendale-Los Angeles Boulevard Association was organized in the Glendale-Tropico district for the purpose of completing the good work which was so promisingly started a year ago with the paving proceedings for Lake Shore avenue, and which unfortunately stopped with the consummation of that enterprise.

When the plan for linking Lake Shore avenue with the southern end of Brand boulevard, by the straightening out and joining up of old streets and the construction of the roadway, was first launched, it met with a hearty response. It seemed for a while, in fact, that a direct boulevard of easy grade between this city and the towns at the lower end of the San Fernando Valley would soon be rushed through, so popular was the idea. The people of the region in back of Edendale, however, were, like people generally, feeling a little bit "poor" right then, and the undertaking came to a halt.

There could be no better time for the revival of the scheme than the present. The widening and paving of Lake Shore avenue has been carried to a point well toward Edendale, far enough north, in fact, to meet all the purposes of the proposed city-to-city boulevard. That much has been done. Brand boulevard extends through the heart of Glendale and on south through Tropico to an abrupt terminus at the Los Angeles River. Of the four-mile gap to be filled out and paved a considerable portion is now served by streets that follow good grades and extend in the general direction that would be taken by a carefully studied out through route. Other streets require grading and twisting and altogether there is a lot of work to be done, but a splendid start has been made.

The Glendale and Tropico people are to be commended for their good sense in seeing that it is time to make a serious attempt to get the project through. Equal realization, there is reason to believe, is dawning on the Los Angeles side of the break and in the stretch of county territory in between.

Co-operation between the two cities at either end and the county in the middle of the missing boulevard link is what is needed to get the thing through with a bang. The prospect for this co-operation, it might be observed, appears to be better than ever before. The plan of having the county and city join in the construction of the proposed viaduct across the Los Angeles River at East Seventh street has opened the way for similar action in connection with other public highway enterprises.

If the county needs a bridge over the river at any point where travel is at present hampered it surely requires such a span on a direct line between Los Angeles and Glendale. The value of a thorough highway in the county area between the river and the limits of Los Angeles is easy to be seen also, for a boulevard carrying the volume of the traffic and travel that the proposed Los Angeles-Glendale route would handle would undeniably be a magnet for development activity. Therefore the county should help both with the bridge and the boulevard.

Glendale and Tropico would profit immensely through having their running time for automobiles and other vehicles to Los Angeles reduced to a fraction of what it is at present. The roundabout way drivers have to take to get back and forth between this city and the two valley places at the present time is a distinct detriment to the growth and development of both of the latter places. The way out is simple enough and Glendale and Tropico should not, and undoubtedly will not, be found wanting in a willingness to do all that could possibly be expected of them toward carrying out the new boulevard scheme.

The completion of this boulevard means a whole lot more to Los Angeles than most people realize. This city in not paying more attention to the project, has been missing an opportunity not only for bringing here the trade of a host of persons who now stay away, but for building up a vast and slightly district that has been too long neglected. There is no more naturally beautiful section in Los Angeles than that back of Edendale.

If this proposed boulevard were in existence and if one might stretch his imagination so far as to conceive also that there were a new route of some kind through Bunker Hill, it will be seen that the entire traffic and travel from the lower end of the San Fernando Valley and all the region in between would now inevitably be pouring through Lake Shore avenue and through tunnels or open cuts into that portion of the business district north of Third street. Subtract from the imaginative element the idea that a hill opening existed, and it will be realized that this same traffic, with such a boulevard outlet, would now be pouring into Sixth street. Los Angeles should certainly do its share in the boulevard project.

It goes without saying that the districts most directly benefited should bear a considerable share of the cost burden. There is no good reason why they should escape. It would expect them to form a special assessment district to take care of the entire enterprise a method that is all too frequently followed in improvements of general benefit.

It is the intention of the Fact and Comment man that these observations should be considered both as an argument for the boulevard enterprise itself and for the principle of the equitable distribution of the cost of public improvements. The fair and just plan will be the best one to follow in this vitally important undertaking and in all others of its character. Let's have this boulevard as soon as possible.

Read the big advertisement in today's paper, giving a description of the prizes and the number of votes given on subscriptions.

How to Win

The territory is divided into two districts—One and Two. All of the city of Glendale and adjacent territory constitutes District One. All of the city of Tropico and adjacent territory constitutes District Two.

Any reputable person living in either of the two districts may be a candidate and compete for an award. Every candidate who receives two or more subscriptions will win a prize.

A person who desires to enter this campaign and win one of the magnificent prizes offered should see that their name is sent to their district campaign headquarters. The office of the Glendale Press is campaign headquarters for District One, and the campaign headquarters in District Two will be located at the Tropico Pharmacy. Receipt books and supplies will be furnished the candidates free at the campaign headquarters.

Candidates should at once interest their friends in the campaign, and by united and energetic action induce as many people as possible to vote for them. There is a coupon in this paper which is good for 500 votes. A person turning in a coupon nominates the person whose name they fill in, and at the same time casts 500 votes for them. One may use as many of these 500 vote nomination coupons as they can get.

The nomination coupon will only appear in a few issues of the paper. Cut the nomination coupon from this issue and send it to headquarters with your name or that of a friend. A subscription is not necessary, but a good start means much. The name of the person making the nomination will not be divulged if so requested.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Seal, Mr. and Mrs. George Seal and Mrs. Landon Haynes motored to San Diego last week, where they took in the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lunn of Greenville, Mich., and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lunn, of Chicago, are the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Lunn.

At the ball game last Sunday afternoon the Hogee Giants trimmed the Tropic boys to the tune of 8 to 1. Next Sunday's game will be with the Hippodromes.

Miss Gladys Hamilton who was injured last Friday morning when an auto driven by her brother ran into the curb and threw the party out on the ground, is rapidly recovering at her home, 527 East Acacia street. Miss Essie Hamilton, who was also in the party with the brothers, escaped with slight injuries.

Miss Vera McPherson will be at the play grounds Saturday afternoon from 2:30 to 3:30 at which time all boys and girls are invited to hear her tell stories. The story tellers will be at the play grounds every Saturday afternoon hereafter.

When two city attorneys state they are going trout fishing while their respective spouses are away, you can rest assured that their destination, as stated by themselves, will never be reached. We will, however, chronicle the story that city attorneys Goodwin and Evans spent a few hours trout fishing in the mountains near Azusa.

The Tropic Scouts will cook a supper next Saturday evening worth eating. It is greatly urged that those who have been asked to form the Scout Council attend because the supper will be for them.

Mr. Pollard, the Los Angeles Scout Commissioner will be there. He has done great work in Chicago and is going to do still greater here. Come and get acquainted with him.

J. P. Alexander of 642 East Acacia brought to this office last week a large box of home grown strawberries that—each one—would almost make a meal. Mr. Alexander's hobby is fancy poultry, flowers and fruit. On his residence lot he grows the different varieties with a view of showing what can be done on a city lot. Several varieties of the strawberries were in the box and each one better than the other. It might also be added that the plants were but a year old and no water as yet this season. Some berries would weigh several ounces. He also presented us with a bunch of blue roses, a novelty here and very fragrant and beautiful.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday were big days last week at the Coffer Grocery. Demonstrators from several food products companies were there, and many samples of good things to eat were distributed to the people who entered the store. On Saturday evening a big list of premiums were given away to those holding lucky cash register slips. The following people won: Coaster, Don Danner; No. 1, Goburn Danner; No. 2, D. O. Martin; No. 3, Dean Davis; No. 4, G. B. Garner; No. 5, Dad Augustine; No. 6, Lyle Martin; No. 7, Geo. Reese; No. 8, A. T. Davis; No. 9, A. W. Johnson; No. 10, H. A. Johnson; No. 12, Dora Howe.

PRESBYTERIAN PREACHERS GO VISITING.

Last Sunday was visiting day among the pastors of the Presbyterian churches of the Los Angeles Presbytery, which included the counties of San Diego, Imperial, Orange and Los Angeles.

Mr. O. P. Rider of the local church exchanged pulpits with Rev. Theodore Hopping of the La Cresenta church. Mr. Hopping is no stranger to the Tropic Presbyterians, as he has filled their pulpit frequently in past years.

The Presbyterians are awake to the signs of the times, as the above plan would indicate. They want their pastors to know, not only their own field, but the church and people of their neighborhood.

In talking with Mr. Hopping after the service he said he found many evidences of growth in our city as well as in the Presbyterian congregation.

MEMORIAL DAY IS FITTINGLY OBSERVED IN TROPICO

Memorial services were held at the G. A. R. hall last Sunday afternoon. The hall was beautifully decorated and a large crowd attended the services.

Comrade W. C. Gibbons delivered the address which was intensely interesting.

On Monday, at 10 A. M., a large truck load of veterans, W. R. C. and Sons of Veterans went to Burbank and at the Grand View Cemetery strewed flowers upon the graves of departed comrades.

In the afternoon at Forest Lawn several hundred people gathered where the G. A. R. ritualistic services were used. Headed by Sons of Veterans and school children carrying flowers the graves were piled high. After the decorating of graves the exercises were held under the shade of the massive trees that make Forest Lawn so beautiful. Led by Comrade Robt. Taylor everyone sang "Hold the Fort," after which Post Commander Sanford introduced the speakers, who were: Rev. D. D. Cheney, Rev. Bede A. Johnson, R. M. McGee, and Rev. W. E. Edmonds. The firing squad under Maj. J. J. Weiler were Comrades Robt. Taylor, J. B. Hickman, R. D. Goss and C. R. Norton.

Last Friday was all day meeting for the N. P. Banks Post and W. R. C. and the day will be long remembered by all members. After the luncheon everyone assembled in the auditorium where they listened to an interesting talk given by Gen. A. J. Sampson of Arizona. Following this talk, while the military band, under Maj. J. J. Weiler stood at attention, Miss Clara Midealt and her scholars entered and presented to the post a facsimile of the Betty Ross flag, thirteen stripes with a circle of thirteen stars on a blue field, that the members of her class had made with their own hands.

POPULARITY CAMPAIGN

Instructions for Voting

Enter the name of the candidate whom you wish to secure one of these magnificent prizes. He or she may win the beautiful $650 Chevrolet automobile, the $200 Von Stein Academy of Music Scholarship, a tour to the San Francisco Exposition with all expenses paid, or one of the other many and valuable awards.

Better still, get the party to enter his or her own name and then cast your votes. Those who get in on the start have the best chance of winning, so it is desirable to enter the name at once and get a good start.

Candidates who enter the campaign do not necessarily have to be a subscriber to the paper. Enter your name and your friends will do the rest. It will be surprising to see how rapidly the votes will come in and how little effort is necessary to win one of the prizes. You will never know how popular you are until you enter a campaign of this kind.

Names Published Weekly

After the first announcement of candidates, which will be made in next week's paper, the votes will be counted and the results published each week, until the campaign closes, July 24. There will be a short write up each week so that those entered can keep in close touch with the various candidates. Certain it is that candidates in this and the other district are each going to get one of the magnificent awards, and it is left to the readers of the papers to decide which.

Nominations

Any person has the privilege of nominating one or more candidates. Nominations should be mailed to the campaign headquarters at once, as the names of the candidates will be published in the next issue of this paper. Candidates may be nominated after this date, but it is a great advantage to have the name appear in the first published list, so that one's friends may not agree to work for someone else before knowing who are entering the campaign. It costs absolutely nothing to nominate a candidate.

The campaign manager may be found at campaign headquarters, and stands ready and willing to render assistance and give any information.

In this issue of the paper will be found an encouragement coupon, which, if accompanied by a one year's subscription, will count 20,000 extra votes in addition to the regular votes offered on a subscription. Payment on back subscriptions will count just as much as new or paid-in-advance subscriptions.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS' CARNIVAL NOTES

Knights of Pythias of Tropic Visor Lodge are as busy as bees now completing arrangements for their big carnival Thursday, June 24.

In the afternoon field sports will be pulled off on the playgrounds. A big cafeteria supper will be given by the Pythian Sisters. In the evening there will be drills by Los Angeles D. O. K. K's, Uniform Rank and Pythian Sisters. Street dancing, confetti battles and a general big time.

San Fernando road from Tropic avenue will be gaily decorated and illuminated. Booths and concessions will line both sides of the street, and a band of music will furnish the noise.

The K. P. carnival will be extensively advertised and it is estimated that there will be thousands of Pythians here on that date.

Lee's Retreat From Gettysburg

ONE of the most dramatic incidents of the civil war was the retreat of Lee's army after Gettysburg, with its hundreds of wagon loads of wounded soldiers.

A woman who lived by the road down which this long line of screaming groaning and dying men was being hauled said that it was the most awesome event of her life. They went by her home during the night.

But even the wounded had to make way for the guns. When the artillery came thundering along the road the officers in command of it forced the wagons loaded with wounded to give them the right of way, which was done.

A good many of the thousands of the Union wounded at Gettysburg were taken to Philadelphia war hospitals by railroad trains. The nearly 6,000 dead in blue and gray who lay on the sunny fields at Gettysburg gave the opposing armies far less worry than did the hosts of wounded.

"JUST FOR MEMORIES."

Nation Pauses on Memorial Day to Think of Dead and Living Heroes.

"Five minutes for memories" on Memorial day is observed more and more generally in the United States, especially by the members of the G. A. R. and similar organizations throughout the entire country. For five minutes those who love the memories of the men who fought for their country stand uncovered and pay tribute.

As the custom has been for several years, when the tribute to the dead was paid, so will it be this year. All the flags on public and many private buildings will be lowered to half mast, bells will toll each thirty seconds during this time, and those who honor the memories of the men who died that the Union might be saved will, as in the past, stand uncovered.

A specimen order of the commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, issued in connection with this custom, reads thus:

"At 12 noon on Memorial day the flag will be lowered to half mast and so kept until 12:05. During these five minutes all comrades will stand uncovered as a mark of respect to the memories of those who have died."

Sylvia Snowden, of the Humane Society, says that she is going to have a stop put to the killing of clay pigeons by the Gun Club members.

Not "Decoration" Day.

Of late years many persons have referred to Memorial day as "Decoration day." It was set apart many years ago by the Grand Army of the Republic as a day upon which tribute is paid to the memory of the men who served in the Union army in the war for the preservation of the Union, and the Confederate veterans now celebrate similar days in honor of the memory of the brave men who fought upon the other side. "Memorial day" is correct.

Memorial Day's Meaning.

"Was Memorial day set aside for sports, baseball games, work horse parades and other spectacles or was it set aside in commemoration of the boys in blue who fought and died for their country in 1861-5?"

"Let us as patriotic citizens honor the veterans who are still with us and cherish the names of those who have crossed the great divide," says a letter to a Chicago newspaper.

A BATTLEFIELD LETTER.

Written by Dying Union Soldier to Family After Antietam.

An interesting reminder of the civil war is the letter of Captain Allen H. Zacharias, written on the Antietam battlefield. His regiment, the Seventh Michigan, had been driven back when the Union soldiers advanced over the same ground. Captain Zacharias was found holding a paper on which he had written:

Dear Parents, Brothers and Sisters:
I am wounded, mortally, I think.
The fight rages around me.
I have done my duty; this is my consolation.
I hope to meet you all again.
I left not the line till all had fallen and the colors gone.
I am getting weak. My arms are free, but below the chest all is numb.
The enemy trotting over me.
The numbness up to my heart. Goodbye, all.
ALLEN.
